The best book of all four in this series with some series hot action between the sheets!

By Erin Celeste Martin

I have read all four books but this review is only for the first one (January, February, and March). Mia is a spunky 25 year old beauty that is in a financial bind and is trying to right by her sister and her father - the man who got into a million dollar debt. The first month in, she was already in love with her first client. I loved Wes and my heart broke a little that she didn't stay with him but then again, the series would end. She moves onto her next client, a hottie French man named Alec who photographs and paints her as his muse. The sex is beyond hot and a little taboo. The March man is a hottie but he's gay and I found this client a bit boring and it seemed like it was more of the author's personal agenda. However, it was heartfelt and overall, the first three months had me addicted to Mia's story especially when she has a surprise visitor at the end of March join her in bed.

GREAT SERIES.... Sexy but not Trashy... LOVED IT!!!!

By Melodie J. Lockett

This was a new author for me... I was very intrigued by the concept of 12 guys, 12 months...

Once I started I could not stop, I purchased them all on audio, and listened to them one right after the other...

I didn't take long to fall in love with the characters.

I was afraid that Mia would come off as a prostitute... but that is so not the case... Sex is a big part of these books, but it's not ALL about sex... some months she does not get intimate with her clients at all.

Great Series....

By Harvest Crush

All four calendar book were outstanding. The journey of Mia to pay her father's debt, find herself while helping others along the way was unexpected and beautiful. The life lessons along the way really are amazing and beautifully scripted. Audrey Carlan's beautiful and flowery writing is captivating. I will definitely read more of her books and I will re-read the Calendar books in the future because Mia's journey is worth more than 1 ride!
