The Illustrations capture the essence of country living with both close-ups and beautiful landscapes, printed one per page,

By Jackie Cooper

This coloring book will transport you to the country with 31 idyllic illustrations covering all four seasons, The apple blossoms and baby birds of spring, A boy and his dog fishing on the farm pond in the heat of summer, pumpkins and scarecrows bring in the fall, and the cold of winter is met with collecting maple sap by horse and wagon. The Illustrations capture the essence of country living with both close-ups and beautiful landscapes, just waiting for you to add vibrancy and color to create masterpieces worthy of framing.

1. 31 Illustrations printed one per page (back is blank) on heavy weight, bright white paper.
2. Details vary per illustration, many are very detailed
3. Perfect for color or water color pencils, markers, pens, paints
4. Adults and school aged children will love this book
5. If you use Markers and some gel pens, place 2 pieces of paper under the picture you are coloring to prevent leakage to the next picture, or remove the picture from the book.

The Images I attached to this photo are colored with Crayola water color pencils available on Amazon.

Really nice adult coloring book

By Annie

This Creative Haven Country Scenes Coloring Book is a good one. My husband and I like to relax and spend time together coloring and painting. He really likes this coloring book because of the outdoor scenes. A lot of the adult coloring books are optical illusion patterns, paisley patterns, and those types of things so its nice to have some actual pictures. He uses gel pens and colored pencils in this book. The pictures are on one side of the page and the paper is good quality. This one cost a little more than I like to spend on them but its worth every penny.
