‘Go ahead ... I dare you.’

As children, we couldn't walk away from such a challenge. But, over time, the prospect of trying something—anything—new is decidedly less inviting. We become ok with letting the unknown remain the unknown.

But God has more in store for us than what we see before us. As His children, He longs for us to rediscover what it means to dare to be. In this 30-day devotional, we encourage you to boldly accept His dare to discover the fullness of life.

We dare you to jump into the adventure He has awaiting you. Dare to be forgiven; dare to be loved; dare to be changed; dare to be free.

Accept the challenge today and don't limit what your limitless God has for you. Go ahead ... we dare you.

Great Devotional!

By Katie C

This devotional is a great balance of content and length. It was challenging and encouraging! It is hard to find a devotional for women that is general enough for any woman to benefit from it...not just moms or wives or single women.
