this is a pretty nice item esp for a pre teen

By Cattie Brie

this is a nice kit in the form of a hard back book. when you open it up the left side has a plastic covering and within are several tubes of paint and brushes, eraser and a pencil. the right side contains a drawing/painting pad of paper and in front of that is the book itself which actually has the appearance of a small comic book. it has some pretty neat stuff to draw and depicts the stages nicely. it was worth it for sure for my 11 year old nephew. its a cool little kit.

I love this!

By Jayme A. Mallonee

I love all of the Dragonart how-to books. It not only gives you the basics, it gives you advanced ideas, and through out the entire thing you have comments to make it even more fun. Even if you don't use it to help you draw, its still good to just read through and enjoy the art and the humour packed in it.

Drawing Dragons

By David Beale

I bought this book for my niece, a 14-yr old artist who loves dragons. It's perfect for her and she's spent many hours perfecting her craft with the author's help. It's a fair value for the price and I'd recommend it to anyone with a teenager interested in dragons!
