There's only one way to win this game: break the rules.

Halle Shifters, Book 5

James "Barney" Barnwell is losing his ever-loving mind. Between the threat to the white shifters and a riddle he's been ordered to solve, he can actually go for ten whole minutes without thinking about Heather, the woman destined to be his mate.

As much as he burns to get the redhead under him, the safest place for her is far away from him. If the bad guys catch the barest hint of her scent on his skin, she'll become a target.

The way Heather sees it, the quicker she helps the stubborn Bear solve the riddle, the quicker he'll bite her—literally. But when she's hurt while protecting her cousin from an attack, she finds herself right where Barney never wanted her: smack dab in the middle of the investigation.

Like it or not, Barney is forced to bring her fully into his crazy world. With his mate's life in his hands, he's in a race against time to solve this maddening riddle before the enemy discovers that the Hunter has finally been caught by love.

Warning: This book contains explicit sex, graphic language, lots of questions and maybe even some answers.

Remember: Fox holds the key.

Really liked it

By Valérie

The plot thickens for the Halle shifters. In this instalment, we follow Heather and Barney in their search for answers in the white shifter mystery. They have to solve the riddle handed by Chloé and Julian but each clue leads to more questions...

This one is darker than previous books but still entertaining. I really liked it.

Sooo suspenseful!!

By Kindle Customer

This series just gets better and better. I'm on a steady diet of bitten off fingernails waiting for the ending of it. Its going to be epic! Lions, and tigers and bears, oh my!! Coyotes, Ocelots, wolves, and ummm, what does the fox say? It says to ty tuned to the next book! This is good stuff
