LOVE UNDONE BY NATALIE FRAGIADAKIS PDF

He didn't mean to fall in love with a dead girl... Close friends and a successful writing career have provided 30-year-old screenwriter Harrison Cooper all the solace and comfort he's ever needed. Until the day he realizes that his creative muse has not just taken a vacation, but quit her job altogether. With his agent breathing down his neck and threatening to drop him, Harrison fears that he's staring down the barrel of a mid-life career crisis. Things seem pretty bleak until, during a night of drunken revelry, he stumbles upon the Hotel Darion, a faded relic from New York City's golden age. Here he meets Helen Carlisle, a beautiful young singer murdered almost 70 years ago. Her tragic story inspires him to write the best screenplay of his career. Her love inspires him to open his heart in ways he never thought possible. LOVE UNDONE is, at its heart, a story about love found in the most unexpected places. Even tragedy can have a silver lining, if you only know where to look

Great Book

By Geo

This was a great read. I found it very good. The author did a wonderful job holding my attention, I don't as a rule read romance novels but it was suggested to me from a friend. I loved it.

Read, Read, Read!

By Mac

I have always loved anything to do with ghosts, so this naturally grabbed my attention right away. The interactions between the main character and the spirit were my favorite scenes! And the part with the jealous boyfriend had me on the edge of my seat. On top of that, by the time you finish, you will wish you had a friendship like Harrison's and Mich's. Read, read, read!

Mystery, romance, and ghosts – oh my!

By Jenna

Harrison and Mitch (Michelle) have been best friends since 4th grade and are now NYC roommates dealing with 30-something malaise. But drastic change is coming, beginning on Mitch's rainy birthday night.

Harrison's case of writer's block is suddenly cured after hearing a beautiful and mysterious woman singing in a run-down hotel. He learns her story then writes his best book ever, which leads to dilemmas both good and bad for several key characters.

You know a story is good when you want to reach through your Kindle and slap some sense into the protagonist! Harrison is not perfect; sometimes irritating but always interesting. There are mysteries to solve, problems to take care of, and hard choices to make. A fun read for mature readers.
