Review

"This is a very fine, representative selection of Nathaniel Hawthorne's letters to make up a strong, aptly done Selected Letters edition. It is most fitting that The Ohio State University Press be the publisher of this single volume, reader-friendly edition of Hawthorne's letters to complement the six volumes of the Centenary Edition."

"A carefully edited, well chosen volume of Hawthorne's letters."

Hawthorne is a master letter writer

By Brian Hale

Hawthorne's letters are every bit as fascinating as his stories. Joel Myerson's selections give readers the man behind the veil masking himself in his own words. Meanwhile, Myerson's notes provide clear contexts for the letters.
