Fantastic!

By H. Gale

A little lie helps Megan find a "Man to Do." One leg in a brace from a long ago car accident, she feels like it keeps people from looking at her twice. Enter the lie: she decides to have a friend put her bad leg in a cast, then goes on vacation to a ski lodge and says she has a broken leg! On the very first night, Luke Webster notices.

A hot game of truth or dare has Luke asking for a second encounter, then another...and another! His reaction to Megan's leg (when he finds out that it's permanent, and that she lied) is very real, and we see his true personality...not just the playboy and the lover. He's very sweet and considerate, and not half as selfish as he believes himself to be; he just doesn't think his problems through. Luckily, he has a friend with a lot of common sense to keep him from acting like such a man! :-)

The couple is very real-life. Megan is bright and sassy, down-to-earth, and adventurous. Luke - well, he's your typical playboy - with a practical side. There are no awkward moments, and author Jo Leigh carries the story of with such aplomb, I forgot that I wasn't watching it as a movie! The chemistry is perfect, and their story is enduring; you know they're going to have problems in the future, but you also know they'll get through them.

My first book by Jo Leigh; bet I'll be getting more!
